Susan Collier has a lifelong passion for communication through music. She devotes much time to organising and performing in fund-raising events, and is an accredited adjudicator for The British and International Federation of Festivals. She freelances with various ensembles including the Metropole & Heritage Orchestras, and performs with her son Jacob Collier. She has broadcast on Radio 3 & 4, and Classic FM.

Having studied at the Royal Academy of Music as a violin scholar, Susan became the youngest violin professor in their Junior Department, where she also coaches chamber music, and has since been awarded an ARAM for outstanding services to the violin profession
